LINER SALMO SUNK BY GERMANS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, April 11.—The sinking of the Wilson liner Salmo, having on board one American, who was saved, was reported to the state department by Consul Frost at Queenstown today.

This is a busy week socially and there is something scheduled for every night in the week in the dancing line. The enrollment, under the new state law, is progressing rapidly and it will be all completed by the last of April. Triplette copies of all enrollment sheets must be made, two for Concord and one to be held here.

DEAD LINE IS ESTABLISHED IN LOWER HARBOR

Harbor Closed From Sunset to Sunrise; Patrol Boat Assigned to Duty Here.

Following the executive order of President Wilson, the Army and Navy officials here have established a dead line in Portsmouth Harbor which prohibits the departure or arrival of any ships, etc., between sunset and sunrise. The line extends in a radius of 2 1/2 miles in the form of an arc with Whaleback Light as the center. A patrol boat will be on duty there covering this territory and in order to make any modification of this order when a case is presented, the matter will be handled by a senior officer of the harbor patrol.

Last night and early this morning was about as cold as April 11 as any of the old timers can remember. Thick ice formed during the night.

Paris, April 11.—It was decided today by the war office that the Lafayette Flying squadron, composed of Americans, who have distinguished themselves in the French army, will change from the French to the United States military uniform and hereafter will fight under the flag of the United States.

This famous fighting unit of the French army, made up of distinguished Americans, have created a wonderful record for themselves. They were united under the lead of the Lafayette squadron some months ago and as soon as they received word that the United States had declared war against Germany they asked permission of being the first to carry the United States flag in the army at the front and the war office has now granted that request. Many of the men have won recognition for bravery and about all of them have been mentioned in general orders.

EXPLOSION WORK OF GERMAN AGENTS

Could Not Have Been Result of Carelessness Officials Declare. --- 122
Deaths on Revised List.

(By Associated Press)
Chester, Pa., April 11.—Revised lists of the fatalities resulting from the explosions at the shrapnel loading plant of the Edgelynn ammunition corporation placed the death list at 122. The majority were girls and young women. Between 125 and 150 were injured, at least ten being so burned and torn by shells that death is expected. Twenty-three are missing. Some of these it is expected were blown into the river.

A. B. Johnson of the Baldwin locomotive works at first thought the disaster was due to carelessness, while Samuel A. Cauffman, head of the munition company, said: "We are unable to account for the explosion in any other way than the act of some maliciously inclined person or persons." President Johnson later changed his theory that it was due to carelessness. He now agrees with the officials. He said: "Although we have only circumstantial evidence it looks as though some one touched off a bomb or with a time-clock attachment. I have been convinced after a talk with the officials that the accident could not have been due to carelessness."

ban life, if not superior. The rural home, with its diversified production will be restored. The farmer will be the power, the influence in the land.
"To get all there is out of rural life the farmer must keep in close touch with the world, should know and understand what is going on in the world should understand the conventions and organizations of the social, commercial and industrial world, should not isolate himself and become narrow, full of prejudices and unintelligent conceits, as those who live too closely by themselves are apt to become."
"Farmers must not allow any demagogue who promises everything but has never performed anything to influence them and guide them into all sorts of plausible but impractical reforms which are impossible of fulfillment and lead nowhere. Trust should rest with those who have demonstrated ability and honesty. Votes and influence should not be traded off for promises. Don't put into the hands of the untried the welfare of the community and the control of affairs either personal or public, the most valuable interests of the community."
"The day of the small but productive farm and small but prosperous farmer is coming, and with it will come a country of such prosperity, all having a sufficiency, as never was known."

"AMERICA DAY" NEW NAME FOR HOLIDAY

Concord, April 10.—The senate today amended House Bill No. 535, relating to the abolishment of Fast Day and establishing in its place Stark-Sullivan Day, so that the act shall take place May 1, 1917, instead of at the time of its passage.

Senator Thierhalt, chairman of the judiciary committee, stated that in offering this amendment he had acted upon the request of the governor in order that the passage of the bill might not interfere with the appointment of Fast Day for the current year, this having already been named for April 19th. He said that there was a difference of opinion among the members of the senate as to the proper name by which to designate the new holiday. Some have suggested America Day, while others desired to retain the old name of Fast Day. He had received a communication from a gentleman in New York suggesting that it be called Stark-Sullivan Day, but the whole matter was up to the senate to decide. The committee had no recommendation to make with reference to the name.

Senator Page of Portsmouth said that the consensus of opinion, as he interpreted it, was to abolish Fast Day and that the only thing in dispute was as to the name of the new holiday. America Day meant a more general application and would be understood by people outside of New Hampshire more than the local names of Stark and Sullivan.

Senator Hardy of Hollis moved an amendment changing the name of the holiday from Stark-Sullivan Day as it appeared in the regular bill, and substitute the name of America Day.

The motion was seconded and the amendment adopted. The bill will come up for passage at the afternoon session of the senate.

PRESIDENT ACKNOWLEDGES ELKS' PLEDGE

Exalted Ruler James W. Barrett of Portsmouth Lodge, No. 97, D. P. O. E., on Tuesday received an acknowledgment in the shape of a handsomely engraved card from President Woodrow Wilson for the proffer of support given by the local Elks of their recent meeting. The acknowledgment is as follows:

"The President is very grateful for your generous pledge and of co-operation and support and he hopes that you will accept this informal acknowledgment of your message as an expression of the deepest appreciation of your patriotic offer."

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keepdown uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pains called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a teaspoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of its impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, overcast, lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

be formally opened in 1 out of the 16 cities comprising the National and American league clubs.

In the National League, Pittsburgh will play at Chicago; St. Louis at Cincinnati; Philadelphia at Brooklyn. The opening game at Boston with New York has been declared off owing to the ground being covered with snow.

On the American circuit Chicago will open at St. Louis, Cleveland at Detroit, Washington at Philadelphia, Boston at New York.

For the first time in the history of the base ball organization the pennant races will be started while the nation is at war.

TODAY WILL BE RAILROAD DAY IN THE HOUSE

Concord, April 10.—The committee on railroads stated to the house this morning that it would hold its final hearing this afternoon and evening and will report tomorrow morning.

The evening hearing will be an open one, at which the gentlemen who have been appearing before the committee will attend, and the members of the house will be invited to ask any questions about the bill. The Public Service commission will attend and speak on the bill and ask questions. All members desiring more information about the bill than they expect to get in the debate tomorrow were urged to attend the big mass meeting tonight.

The members were cautioned to obtain passes for admission to the state house from the superintendent of the building. No person, not even the governor of the state, is permitted to enter the state house after 5 o'clock p. m. without a pass.

Fairbanks of Newport, chairman of the railroad committee, informed the house this morning that a rebuttal on the railroad bill would close at 6 o'clock this evening and that a public meeting under the auspices of this committee would be held in Representatives' Hall at 7:30 o'clock. He said that the amount of money involved in the Boston & Maine reorganization bill reached the sum of $200,000,000 making it the largest measure ever before the New Hampshire legislature.

Couch of Concord urged, as many members as possible to attend the meeting tonight. The committee will take a vote of the bill tonight and refer it to the house Wednesday morning, so that it may be debated and acted upon and sent to the senate Thursday morning.

Cummings of Littleton favored the house going into a committee of the whole tomorrow, so that the members might hear both sides of the question. By adhering to this plan the legislature may positively reach adjournment next week.

A random test was recently made in a crowded Pullman Club Car—and it was found that, of the men who were smoking cigarettes, 5 out of 9 were smoking Fatimas.

Probably an unusually high percentage even for Fatimas; but this case is merely one of the many evidences that more and more representative men are now-a-days choosing a sensible cigarette.

They smoke Fatimas—not alone for their likeable taste—but for the common sense "man-comfort" that they find in this delicately balanced Turkish blend. Fatimas please the throat and tongue while you are smoking them—and they leave you feeling "fit" afterwards.

You don't have to think of "how many" when you are smoking a sensible cigarette like Fatima.

The membership committee of the new Chamber of Commerce held a well attended meeting at their rooms on Pleasant Street on Tuesday evening when very encouraging reports were received from all present. It was stated by the members of the committee that a little over $2500 had already been

It is planned to have the organization meeting on Wednesday evening, April 18, and the committee will endeavor to obtain the use of the Probate Court room in the Court House on State Street for that purpose.

GOV. KEYES WANTS OUR TROOPS USED

Concord, April 10.—Governor Keyes when interviewed, in regard to the presence of troops from other states in New Hampshire said that he understood men from the First Vermont regiment were to be used by the war department to guard public utilities in northern New Hampshire and men from the Sixth Massachusetts regiment for a similar purpose in southern New Hampshire.

"For some time past," said the governor, "we have been receiving requests to furnish such guards at various points in the state, and we have recognized the propriety of the requests and the necessity for taking such precaution. Our First New Hampshire regiment, having recently returned from active service well performed on the Mexican border, and being fully equipped and ready for prompt mobilization, we considered it available for such duty. We have asked the war department repeatedly to order our boys out for service and we shall strenuously continue to urge this request."

"For some reason, however, it has appeared to the war department to make other arrangements for guarding New Hampshire property, and in these arrangements it is our duty to co-operate in every way. The nation is now at war and I hesitate to criticize, but I must say that I am keenly disappointed."

The Massachusetts troops are now doing guard duty in Portsmouth and Laconia, and Vermont troops at Woodsville. Governor Keyes has exhausted about every means at his disposal to secure recognition from the United States government to mobilize the New Hampshire Guard, even going so far as to dispatch Adjutant General Howard to headquarters of the eastern war department in New York. He has also conferred with Secretary of War Baker and General Wood in his efforts to get the New Hampshire guard members back into service. They were all discharged after their return from the Mexican border, and such individual members of it as are now on duty guarding New Hampshire utilities, private industries and important points are under state pay. None is in the federal service.

With the country at war, many society events are being cancelled.

This fine old gambrel-roof house was erected previous to 1750 by Captain Purcell. Capt. John Paul Jones lived there while he was building the ship "America" in 1779. It was afterwards owned and occupied by the Hon. John Langdon and later by the Hon. Samuel Lord.

It contains some fine specimens of old panels, mantels, tiles, cornices, finishings, and other materials of value as antiques, besides modern bath rooms, heating apparatus, radiators and furnishings.

Intending bidders can examine the property by applying at the office of the Granite State Fire Insurance Company at any reasonable time before the sale. The house must be removed from the lot within thirty days after the date of sale.

A deposit of two hundred dollars will be required from the purchaser at the time of sale, and delivery of bill of sale will be made upon payment of the balance of the purchase money within three days.

Portsmouth, N. H., Wednesday, April 11, 1917.

The Call to the Fields.

It is inevitable and highly proper that under present conditions serious attention should be given to the production this year of crops of all kinds. The entrance of the United States into the war complicates a food situation that was serious before, and it behooves this country to exert itself to the utmost in the production of foodstuffs for its own people and the people of the world.

For this reason a great deal is being said and done to stimulate agriculture and gardening. Old and young are urged to lend a hand in the cultivation of the soil. They are urged to remember that no plot of land is too small to be of importance at such a time, and to see to it that some food product is raised on every foot of ground where anything can be made to grow.

This is all right in its way and much good will doubtless result from the awakening; but, as this newspaper has before stated, it is to the farms and not to the gardens that the country and the world must look for their real supplies. The little patches may do their share, or their "bit," as it is just now fashionable to say, but it is to the broad acres that we must look for the stores of food which will keep the world going through the summer and barricade it against want with the coming of another winter.

And in this connection it is already noted, and correctly, that farm labor will be a prime essential. No matter how extended or fertile the fields, they will do little toward feeding the world unless fully and intelligently tilled. This means hard work and lots of it and that the demand for help will be such as it has never been before. There will be room for every man and boy who is willing to roll up his sleeves and lend a hand in a capacity which in practical usefulness will not be inferior to the bearing of arms.

In such a situation wages will necessarily be high, and this fact, with the added sense of duty and obligation, should attract many willing workers to the fields. Let it be borne in mind that the man or boy who assists in any degree in increasing the food supply will be doing as patriotic work as the men at the front. There is more than one army in which to enlist in the present exigency, and those who for any reason cannot go to the front may do valiant and equally important service by going to the fields.

The Friends, or Quakers, as they are more commonly called by other sects, have conscientious scruples against bearing arms, but are not averse to being of assistance when the country is in trouble. For this reason the students at Haverford college in Pennsylvania are to be given a course in trench digging, hospital and general field work and will be ready to make themselves useful in the struggle ahead, even though they do not shoulder guns.

Another Bannwart has come to light, but this man is in much better business than the Bostonian who undertook to operate on Senator Lodge in Washington the other day with such disastrous results. Bannwart No. 2 hails from New Jersey and is preaching the doctrine of better care of shade trees in cities and villages. This subject is worthy of attention, and the gospel preached by this lover of trees should be attentively heard and religiously lived up to.

Maine is not yet ready to bar the importation of liquor into the state in spite of the fact that it has been under prohibitory law for more than half a century. But all know how the law has been trampled upon in the Pine Tree state, and it appears to be felt that to bar out liquor completely in this time of growing "dryness" would be too much of a jolt to the bibulous portion of the populace.

Colonel Roosevelt wants to lead an army to France and Colonel Bryan has also offered his services. Whatever else may be lacking in the way of preparedness, it is apparent that there will be no lack of "kunnels."

America has lost one of her most distinguished sons in the death of Hon. Richard Olney of Massachusetts. He was one of the best secretaries of state that ever served the nation.

New York is hitting the trail hard under the directions of Billy Sunday. He has caught the big city and his slogan is "Christ and Country."

Governor Milliken of Maine now has the Legislature off his hands with the "bone dry" bill stored away in the skeleton closet.

Portsmouth's only active military company should not lack men. Come, young men, don't you hear your country's call?

Give Us a Year to Fit

(From the Halifax Chronicle)
The men who went across the seas from Canada were taken, in most part, from the farm, the shop, the factory and the offices of the country, and yet in the sternest test of this terrible war they proved themselves the equal of the finest soldiers in Europe. What Canada has done the United States is also capable of doing. They are practically the same people as we; resourceful, highly intelligent and quick to adapt themselves to new conditions. Six months' training will work wonders with the native American, just as it has in most cases converted a Canadian civilian into a first class fighting man. If the United States goes about this business as we believe it is now resolved to go about it, seriously and systematically, it ought to have before the year is ended an army, in point of personnel, individual efficiency and morale, worthy to take its place side by side with the Allied forces on any battlefield.

An Impudent Falsehood
(From the New York Globe and Commercial Advertiser.)
The note of the German Government, which the Swiss Minister has forwarded to the State Department, accusing the United States of having violated the treaty of 1823 by preventing German merchant ships from leaving our ports, is a piece of impudent falsehood. It is a piece of impudent falsehood, is still persisted in as a falsehood impudently asserted as a convincing fact.

The treaty of 1823 has been violated, grossly violated, but not by the United States. This treaty provides in the plainest possible language that when there is a war to which one of the signatories is a party, and the other not a party, that the neutral's general commerce with the belligerent shall not be interrupted. This country during the last two years and eight months has had the right to trade without interference with Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia. Every attack that has been made on American vessels has been in flat contravention of the treaty. The only qualification of the right freely to trade has been that Germany might stop our ships, and on finding contraband thereon might seize the same on payment of the full value thereof at the port of destination. Article 15 of the treaty provides that no German war vessel "shall molest or insult in any manner" our vessels, the people aboard, or their effects. If the contraband after being paid for is delivered over on demand, then the vessel is to proceed untouched on her journey. It is specifically provided that not more than two or three persons from the visiting warship shall come aboard to make the examination.

In the face of this specific pledge it has been the German practice to sink our vessels sometimes without visit and search, and at other times, when visit and search have occurred, the effects of crews and passengers have been sent to the bottom of the sea and their persons put to the peril of the sea in open boats. Germany has repeatedly violated the treaty in the most flagrant manner. She has not paid for the contraband, she has destroyed the non-contraband she has molested our citizens to the extent of killing them.

In addition to violating the treaty with respect to the sea Germany has violated it by holding Americans as prisoners in Germany. Even our diplomatic and consular agents, in defiance of general international law as well as of the treaty, have been detained. The affidavits of the Yarrowdale prisoners show that they were not only deprived of their liberty, but starved and beaten.

Notwithstanding this record of treaty violation the German Government has the brass to make the false charge that German ships have been detained here. They were anchored in our ports not through our choice, but their own. We have given them protection from their enemy. They have been at liberty to depart. They have remained, not because of our wish, but because their owners did not wish them to put to sea. Two, violating our neutrality laws, put out to become commerce raiders, but notwithstanding this there has been denial of no honest application for clearance papers. We have not interfered as German owners have wrecked their property.

It Was a Pioneer Decision
(From the New York World)
A good many women of heroic mind will find fault with Miss Rankin's emotional declaration that, as much as she loved her country, she could not vote for war; but what woman in the United States ever had that dread issue presented to her, before?

Of One Tongue and One Sword
(From the Providence Journal)
It is an inspiring thought of Mr. Anquith that the whole English-speaking race is fighting as a unit in the world war. We are thus newly linked not to Canada and Great Britain alone but to Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. Out of the war will come for all of us a wider vision and a deeper sympathy.

WILLING TO DO HIS BIT FOR THE COUNTRY

Little Rock, Ark., April 11.—Another gratifying example of loyalty was demonstrated at the U. S. navy recruiting office, Little Rock, Arkansas, when Mr. J. L. Leigh of 1611 West

Second street applied for enlistment in the U. S. Navy.
Mr. Leigh requested that he be enlisted at once and sent to the largest battleship aloft for service on that vessel, and he was greatly disappointed when informed by the recruiting officer that he exceeded the required age limit by forty some odd years, he being sixty-nine years of age.
Mr. Leigh is a warrior of experience, having enlisted in the Confederate army at the age of thirteen and having served for four years, which ended in April, 1865, under General Lee, at Appomattox.
It is most gratifying, in these times of need to find such loyal spirit in the "Boys of 1861" and such an example as shown by our worthy veteran, Mr. Leigh, will no doubt find a like response by the "Boys of 1917."

RAILROAD BILL REPORTED IN THE HOUSE

(By Associated Press)
Concord, N. H., April 11.—A bill embodying the so-called directors' plans for the reorganization of the Boston and Maine railroad, was presented to the House of Representatives today. Two members of the committee, Henry Medcalf and Robert L. Gould, recommended that no action be taken until all persons interested had been heard. The house voted to consider the measure late today in committee of the whole and to make a special order for tomorrow. An amendment proposed by the Public Service Commission by which it would have a right to view the expenses of the reorganization, was also introduced.

APPOINTED ASST. SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

Washington, April 11.—Oscar P. Crosby of Warrington, Va., was today appointed assistant secretary of the treasury. Mr. Crosby was recently connected with the American commission of Belgian relief, with headquarters in Northern France.

URUGUAY TO REMAIN NEUTRAL

Montevideo, April 11.—The government of Uruguay issued today an address of neutrality in the war between the United States and Germany, and between Cuba and Germany.

HOUSE REFUSES TO OPPOSE WAR DEPARTMENT

Concord, April 11.—The house by an overwhelming vote defeated a resolution opposing the assignment of militia of other states for guard duty in New Hampshire this has been called out.

BOMB DESTROYED THE PLANT

Bridgeport, Conn., April 11.—The authorities are looking for a man who guided the guards about the plant of the American Tube and Stamping Co., late last night and placed an inflammable bomb in a warehouse. The bomb exploded and set fire to the building which was burned to the ground.

MIDNIGHT ROW IN LUMBER CAMP

Clinton Eaton who claims to belong in Middleboro, ran into Patrolman Gray shortly after three o'clock this morning at the North End and told a story of a free-for-all fight in a lumbering camp in Newington in which Eaton had some marks to show for the mix-up. Eaton and another friend came in from the camp early in the evening and visited several essence parlors where they feasted on malt and rice solution. They arrived at the camp about midnight or later, and war was declared in the hut. Somebody during the hostilities, cracked Eaton on the back with a big stick and then broke one or two of his fingers on the left hand with the same weapon. Eaton later walked into town and displayed his wounds to the police. The officer took Eaton to the station and later called a doctor to fix him up.

FOOD AND MUNITIONS FOR THE ALLIES

That to Be the United States' Job While Training an Army.

Washington, April 10.—America's most immediate offensive campaign against Germany—the furnishing of food and supplies to the Allies, with the ships to transport them—is taking shape. The treasury department, the department of the interior, the shipping board, the department of agriculture and the department of labor are joining hands in the effort.
Many of the incidental departmental questions connected with the problem were discussed at a long session of the cabinet today.
The shipping question is commonly regarded by high officials of the administration as perhaps the first in importance of all the projects which must be expedited and prominent among the factors involved in the use to be made of the German shipping now lying in American ports. A formal decision as to the disposition of the German vessels is expected daily.
In the meantime, agents of the treasury department and the shipping board are making a thorough inspection of the ships in order to determine the nature and extent of the necessary repairs and estimates of the time which they will require will be submitted as soon as the investigation has proceeded sufficiently. It is understood that the government agents are already in informal conference with the shipbuilding concerns on the matter.
While all the details of the question have not been determined, it is understood that all German merchant ships now lying in American ports will be utilized as carriers to defeat the German submarine campaign as soon as they can be put into shape. From what can be learned of the administration's plans in this regard, the government will confiscate without compensation all shipping owned by the German government or owned by corporations which have a governmental charter.
Those belonging to private individuals or firms, it is understood will be impressed into the service but German owners will probably be reimbursed after the war. The question as to what is to be done with the Austrian vessels now in the hands of the federal authorities probably will not be determined until it becomes evident whether Austria will join in making war on the United States.
A plan is also being considered to offer to purchase from the Cuban government the three German ships now held in Cuban harbors. The suggestion has not been made that if Brazil declines to enter the war a similar agreement with her might be reached. Neither government, it is understood, has yet been approached on the subject.
The shipping board, whose plans for building 1000 wooden freighters of from 3000 to 3500 tons have now been approved by the President, is rapidly putting its program into effect. Contracts have been let and plans for standardizing parts have been completed.
It was learned today that the President is considering asking Major-General George W. Goethals to take general charge of the work of building these vessels. Though General Goethals has had no specific training as a shipbuilder, it is believed that his ability as an organizer would be of tremendous value to the nation in the rapid construction of these shipping plants.
One of the problems yet to be solved in constructing a merchant marine capable of conquering the German campaign to isolate England is that of furnishing crews to man the vessels. Officials in touch with the situation, however, believe that the International Seamen's Union can be depended on to meet the demand.
Although it is realized that the U. S. alone cannot immediately furnish enough trained sailors, it is believed that co-operation between the U. S. and the allied powers will be able to take care of the need.

Letters from the People

Thinks They Are Patriotic
Editor:
Note that Spanish War Veterans is surprised that the Veterans Firemen have not followed the lead of other organizations and offered their services to the President. You hear of so many direct offers. It would be well to state what the Veterans Firemen have done, and this too, without the aid of a brass band or tin horn. They have given up their quarters to the soldiers in Uncle Sam's service who are here to protect public property and railroad bridges, so that Spanish War Veterans and everyone else may feel safe when traveling. How many of your good readers have done that for your country, and how many new stand ready to divide their homes with strangers? The veterans have given the soldiers use of their stoves, dishes and lights, and it seems to me that if there are any patriotic people here, they should at least donate to these boys the gas which they use to cook with, also the lights which they use. Come, good people, wake up!

PROCLAMATION FOR FAST DAY

Harry W. Keyes, governor of New Hampshire, has formally named Thursday, April 19, as Fast Day, by the following proclamation:
State of New Hampshire.
By His Excellency, Henry W. Keyes, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION
For a Day of Fasting and Prayer.
At this time, when our State, as a part of our Nation, faces a great crisis, moral and material, it is most fitting that we should set apart, in the manner of our forefathers, a day for direct appeal, as individuals and as citizens, to Almighty God for His guidance, His aid and His blessing in the endeavor upon which we have entered.
Therefore, I hereby appoint Thursday, the nineteenth day of April, A. D. 1917, as Fast Day in New Hampshire.
And I call upon all our people to take solemn counsel on that day with each other and with God upon our duty to uphold the cause of our country, of civilization, of justice and of right.
Given at the Council Chamber in Concord, this fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-first.
HENRY W. KEYES, Governor.
By His Excellency, the Governor, with the advice of the Council.
EDWIN C. BEAN, Secretary of State.

YOUNG MEN ENLISTING IN NAVY

Ambitious Young Men Who Are Willing May Reach Top of World's Greatest Fleets
The need for additional officers in the U. S. navy is being more keenly felt with the commissioning of every new dreadnaught. One of the last acts of congress which ceased to exist on March 3, 1917, was to provide that 100 midshipmen at the naval academy, Annapolis, Maryland, were to be taken from the enlisted personnel of the navy. Every enlisted man under 20 years of age with one year's sea service, is eligible for one of these vacancies, and the examinations are entirely competitive, the highest one hundred young men receiving the appointments.
The average young man in the navy, like the average young man in civilian life, has not had a high school education, and this fact is inducing high school boys to enlist in the navy, as it is practically certain that any young man with a ground work of two years or more high school training who really desires to enter Annapolis can do so.
Naval authorities consider midshipmen with this preliminary training of great particular value, as their knowledge of naval affairs give such young men a much better grasp of the possibilities of their future career, than is held by the candidate appointed directly from civil life by congressmen. The men appointed from the enlisted personnel must be recommended by their commanding officer, and an officer zealous of maintaining the best traditions of the naval service, will give preference to the ablest man under him. This places the high honors of the naval service within the grasp of any young man who has future "finesse to win."

The regiment of midshipmen are always the personal guard of the President at his inauguration. The academy course being for four years, every midshipman participates in one inauguration, and generally in later life as a commissioned officer, in others.

Midshipmen make three cruises during their naval academy career, each cruise held during the three summer months. The itinerary of these cruises is laid out—Germany, Norway, England, and the department of labor are joining hands in the effort.
Many of the incidental departmental questions connected with the problem were discussed at a long session of the cabinet today.

The standards of living, of discipline, of manhood, and of scholastic ability are maintained at a high level. The pressing need of officers has not lowered these standards, as was recently shown when the usual percentage of the midshipmen were "billed" (forced to resign) for deficiency in studies.

The young man who has an aptitude for the sea, who wishes to enter the naval service under the best conditions, who has the ambition to reach the top, and is willing to do his utmost to realize such an ambition, such a type makes the successful naval officer. Such a man has within his grasp the chance to become the Commander-in-Chief of one of the world's greatest fleets.

America's future is linked with seapower. Our merchant marine must become a reality, not a vague hope; our navy must be powerful enough to keep the seas open, and our coast safe, at all times. The men of Annapolis today will be the moving figures in a few years, in carrying out our national inspirations on the seas.

SO. AMERICAN COUNTRIES FALL IN LINE

Brazil's Example in Breaking With Germany to Be Followed by Others.

Washington, April 10.—Much to the uncertainty as to Latin America's attitude in the war between the United States and Germany was cleared away today by definite advice that Chile and Mexico will remain neutral and indications that Brazil, Guatemala and Peru will join Cuba and Panama on the side of the United States.
The decision of Chile, the first of the American republics to announce neutrally, caused some surprise among officials here.

In many quarters it has been expected that she eventually would break with the Berlin government but would postpone her decision until advised definitely of the course of Argentina and Brazil, the other members of the Inter-American A. B. C. group in South America.

What effect her stand will have on the smaller nations of the continent is a matter of much speculation, particularly as there are indications that Argentina also will take a place with the neutrals.

Mexico's decision on the other hand caused no surprise and is regarded as certain to have little influence with her sister republics. Reports that Gen. Carranza was seeking to a distinct pro-American attitude have not been credited by officials here and neither have they believed widely circulated stories that he was preparing to ally himself openly with Germany. In fact, Carranza as to his decision reached the state department informally today and a proclamation of neutrality is expected after the Mexican congress meets April 15.

Official confirmation of Brazil's break with the Berlin government still was lacking tonight at the state department and the Brazilian embassy, but officials believe there is no doubt that the authorities at Rio have definitely decided for war. As the largest South American nation, Brazil's influence on the other republics of the new world is expected to be second only to that of the United States.

Officials here professed to be ignorant of the purpose of Peru as announced in press reports, in sending a naval officer to Washington "on special naval mission," but it was taken as a sign that opinion in that country was crystallizing in favor of the belligerents.

been taken without relieving the pressure on the retreating Germans.
Already over 11,000 prisoners and 60 guns, many of them heavy pieces, have been taken. The minimum advance has been along Viny ridge, the northern pivot of the Hindenburg line, now turned by the British, where the German resistance was naturally stiffest. In view of the importance of the commanding position nevertheless, the British accounts show a steady advance.
Brazil's intention to sever diplomatic relations with Germany has not changed any of the other South American countries.

NAME WIRELESS STATIONS TO REMAIN OPEN

Twelve Stations on New England Coast Will Be Under Government Supervision.

Boston, April 11.—But twelve wireless stations in the first Naval District will be allowed to remain open, outside of those located on Government property, according to orders issued from the Navy Yard here today.

The list of stations which will be conducted under Navy supervision are made public in the announcement.

In this connection the First Naval District officers took possession today of the Marconi station at Wellfleet.

The Wellfleet station will be in charge of J. W. Mullins, chief electrician, of the U. S. N. The regular force at the station has been enrolled in the Navy Reserve and will serve there the same as before, but with ratings given by Uncle Sam.

The men at the station are J. Dermilly, A. Stevens, F. P. Whitehead and D. G. Mox.

Orders were issued by the Naval officials today ordering dismantled all radio stations. Heavy penalties will be inflicted for the disobedience of these instructions. The stations operating under Government permission are located at the radio stations being conducted unlawfully, and seizure may be made at any moment.

The plants which will continue to operate are the Crafts 1111 Tension Laboratory, Cambridge, Tufts College Station, West Medford; Edward J. Norton, Rockland District; Arthur H. Lawford, Bar Harbor, Maine; Radio Stations at Eastport, Me.; Harvard Wireless Club, Cambridge; Radio Station, Hah, Me.; Warren Clock Company, Ashland, allowed to receive time from Washington; Hammond's, Wattham; Watch Company, allowed to receive time; Cutting & Washington Radio Company; Plumes, and the Radio at Wellfleet.

Naval Militiamen and naval reserves are quartered at their bases today as the big program of the First Naval District enters into full swing.

Maine, Connecticut and Rhode Island divisions of Naval Militia, are under arms at the Commonwealth Docks, South Boston. The Navy Reservists are establishing their base at Marblehead.

The Docks are proving admirable quarters for the citizen bluejackets, rooms, well ventilated and heated, the latest barracks are ideal for any weather.

The men swing their hammocks in the spacious buildings last night for their initial night of active service. The realization of immediate duty aroused the men to high spirits and enthusiasm.

More men are needed, however, and all branches of the service are waiting the answer to the call of patriotism which should bring every man of fighting age to his feet in this emergency.

Governor Milliken of Maine was a guest of Commandant Bush at the Navy Yard today. He reviewed a marine drill and visited the Maine men who are quartered at the Commonwealth Docks.

The defense program was discussed with the head of the Maine Defense Committee.

GIRLS! ACT NOW! HAIR COMING OUT MEANS DANDRUFF

25-cent "Danderine" will save your hair and double its beauty.

Try this! Your hair gets soft, wavy, abundant and glossy at once.

Save your hair! Beautify it! It is only a matter of using a little Danderine occasionally to have a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, wavy and free from dandruff. It is easy and inexpensive to have pretty, charming hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; Danderine will try as you will you can't but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

MOVED OFFICES TO NAVY YARD

Board of Survey of Merchant Ships Now at Boston Yard.

Boston, April 11.—The First District Section of the Joint Army and Navy Board, for the survey of merchant vessels, formerly quartered in the Custom House, this city, has taken up quarters in Building 35, at the Navy Yard.

This has been done, according to official announcement at the Yard, in order that persons having business with reference to inspection or sale of boats, yachts, etc., for the Naval Reserve, may know where to apply.

The assembly of motor boats sufficient for an adequate defense of the New England coast is one of the most important factors in the program of the First Naval District.

Officials of this Naval District are co-operating with the citizen defense committees throughout their district, which embraces the Atlantic Coast from Eastport, Maine, to Chatham, Mass., in an effort to bring the Naval Reserve Coast Patrol service up to the very highest point of efficiency.

To accomplish this result, many more motor boats are needed although there has been a marked increase in the number of motor craft in the past week.

To adequately safeguard our coastline, many recruits for all branches are needed.

The motor boats will be examined and passed upon at the Yard. Every young man in this Naval District should offer his service in any capacity which he is competent to fill. The country needs men for its Navy.

PLUMBERS, STEAMFITTERS AND STEAMFITTERS' HELPERS.

Notice is hereby given that charter for Local No. 553 will be closed after meeting Monday, April 23. All applicants wishing to join should notify anyone of the officers immediately.

GRAND CHANCELLOR PRESENT AT ROLL CALL

Annual Event of Damon Lodge, Knights of Pythias Brings Many Members to the Castle Hall to Respond to Their Names

The annual roll call of Damon Lodge, No. 9, Knights of Pythias, was held on Tuesday evening with a large attendance of members. The special guest of the evening was Grand Chancellor Eugene B. Hayes of Farmington, who took this occasion to make his official visitation to Damon Lodge.

Chancellor Commander Rufus W. Ferguson presided and extended a hearty and cordial welcome to those present.

In addition to those present to answer to the roll call, which has become a yearly feature with the local Pythian lodge, many letters were received from absent brothers.

Following the roll call interesting remarks were made by Grand Chancellor Hayes and others.

When the business was concluded an appetizing buffet lunch was served to which all present did ample justice.

The affair was in charge of a committee consisting of the officers of the lodge and nothing was left undone to make it the best roll call in the history of Damon Lodge.

Damon Lodge, No. 9, Knights of Pythias, was instituted January 31, 1871 by Grand Chancellor Stillman S. Davis of Nashua, assisted by Grand Vice Chancellor J. T. S. Libbey of Dover and other Grand Lodge officers.

The charter members were Matthew T. Bolton, Andrew J. Sides, Edward T. Morrison, William B. Grogan, Alonzo

F. Carter, D. Fred Ackerman, James B. Leighton, Hiram D. Lord, Hiram C. Locke, Charles H. Sides, William C. Sides, John S. Sides, George L. Sides, Robert C. Sides, Jr., William Thidall, H. Nelson, R. E. Marden, John M. Clark, Horace A. Mudge, J. W. Lord, William Payson, R. Bates, Edward D. C. Kim, Francis B. Johnson, Samuel C. Whittier, S. B. Woodward, Benjamin Plummer, Thurston Betton, Allen A. Rand, James H. Dow.

Of the original charter members three are still actively connected with the lodge. They are Edward T. Morrison, Horace Mudge of this city and Benjamin Plummer of Sharon, Mass.

Damon Lodge has a membership of nearly 250, including two Past Grand Chancellors, and is considered one of the most active and progressive lodges of the city.

BRITISH FORCES MAKE GAINS

(By Associated Press)

"On Douai Cambin" evidently is the slogan of the British forces fighting on French soil.

Despite strong resistance and added handicap by a severe storm, King George's forces not only hit the German line hard at several points and made great gains.

In the fighting at Lens and southwest of Arras the Germans have suffered enormous losses of men and guns. More than 11,000 prisoners have been taken.

The advance of the British forces has been from 2 to 5 miles, the greatest gain being to the east of Arras. The British official communication says two German divisions suffered considerable loss in stubborn resistance with a superior force.

The British and Russian forces have made gains in Mesopotamia and in Caucasus.

SCHOOL BOARD TAKES ACTION

High School Seniors Who Enlist Will be Given Rating They Have Earned and Diploma if Entitled to the Same

In order to encourage patriotism the board of instruction at City Hall voted on Tuesday evening at City Hall that if any members of the senior class of the high school went into active service before the close of the school term they should be given the rating they had earned up to that time and if entitled to a diploma the same should be granted.

The meeting was presided over by Mayor Samuel T. Ladd and the following members were present: Mrs. A. O. Benfield, Rev. Alfred Gooding, Frank W. Knight, George W. McCarthy, Ira A. Newick and Rev. L. H. Thayer.

The records of the previous meeting and bills for the past month were approved.

The superintendent for the High School Committee reported that Miss Ruth Troy of Cambridge, Mass., a graduate of Radcliffe College, had been secured as teacher of French for the remainder of the year to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Mildred F. Roberts who recently accepted a position in the schools at Brockton, Mass. Miss Troy has recently taught in the Hemmiker high school.

It was also announced that Miss Grace Richardson of West Baldwin, Me., had been secured as a substitute teacher in the eighth grade to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Gilmore. Miss Richardson is a graduate of Farmington Normal School and has recently taught at Long Branch, N. J.

The committee on school savings bank consisting of Rev. Mr. Thayer, Mrs. Benfield and Mr. Newick reported with a full description as to what is being accomplished in other places an recommendation that a school savings bank be opened at the fall term in co-operation with one of the banks or some local organization. The report was accepted and the recommendation adopted.

The committee on school houses were authorized to purchase fuel in such way and on such terms as they might deem necessary to secure a sufficient supply for next year.

It was voted to allow the kindergarten teachers two days in May to attend the International Kindergarten Union to be held in Boston.

The board voted to increase the salaries of the teachers when the City Council should make available the necessary funds for the same.

Superintendent Pringle reported that twenty-three sessions of the evening school had been held with a total enrollment of 99 pupils. Of this number of pupils 18 came from Italy, 15 from Russia, 9 from Greece, 3 from Newfoundland, one from Syria, one from Ireland, one from Austria, one from Nova Scotia. Of the other fifty, twenty-three were born in Portsmouth and the other twenty-seven elsewhere in the United States.

WANTS DELAYS ELIMINATED

Boston, April 10.—The public service commission in a communication today to J. H. Hustis, temporary receiver of the Boston and Maine railroad recommended means of reducing the delays in passenger service. It was recommended that further provision be made for relieving passenger trains of express freight; that a remedy should be found for the delays caused by making up train schedules with short returns at terminal points and that provision be made for removing a substantial portion of the present express business from the North station to some point outside the station.

The principal causes of the delays, according to the report of Henry A. Steward, an inspector of the commission, were the congestion of business, a lack of adequate facilities and the extreme policy of economy adopted by the management. Changes made recently by the road have resulted in improvement in passenger service but further relief is necessary, he said.

MOVIE STARS TO NURSE OUR SOLDIERS.

Universal City Actors Study to Become Red Cross Corps.

If you were a wounded soldier, how would you like to be nursed back to health by a very of the "movie" stars whom you had admired on the screen? That may be what fate has in store for one division of Uncle Sam's new army, for the leading actresses at Universal City are studying to form a Red Cross Corps in case of need.

There are scores of beautiful actresses at this famous city of entertainment who have taken steps to volunteer their services. Louise Lovely, the dainty Universal Star, is one of the leaders in the movement. She has a double reason for being interested in the soldier boys in the present world-wide war. She is an Australian by birth and many of her relatives have been drawn into the war. Now in America she sees her friends here also leaving for the front.

Grace Cunard, star of "The Purple Mask" and Claire McDowell, emotional actress, joined hands with Louise Lovely and brought together such stars as Tina Marshall, Roberta Wilson and even Gale Henry, the comedy star. Little Zoe Rae, the child star, insisted on "doing her bit" and is spending her spare time learning how to make bandages. All are holding regular meetings and studying seriously in order that they may become proficient as possible in case their services are really needed by the government.

GOING TO FIGHT FARMER WILL IN THE COURTS

New Attorneys Enter the Legal Battle in Will of Noted Woman.

Contrary to expectations and reports it now looks like a lively fight over the will of the late Sarah J. Farmer, founder of Greenacre at Elliot.

The testament of Miss Farmer which was presented a number of weeks ago in the probate court at Biddeford has not been approved as yet, for the reason that several attorneys have entered their appearances, and a date for a hearing will be set as soon as Judge Aaron B. Cole of Kittery, who appears for the will is able to be present.

Ralph S. Bartlett of 53 State street, Boston, who it will be remembered, appeared with Sherman S. Whipple in the big fight over the estate of the late Sarah C. Bull, has entered his appearance in the Farmer estate for Mrs. Sarah Rogers, whom he reports as being the aunt and nearest relative of the testatrix.

Ex-County Attorney Hiram Willard of Sanford and Alfred E. Lane of 89 State street, Boston, appear for the Greenacre Fellowship.

Walter P. Perkins of Cornish has had his appearance entered on the record which accompanies the will of Miss Farmer.

OLYMPIA THEATRE NOTES.

Annette Kellerman favors military training for girls from the ages of 10 to 21.

Six hundred persons were paid to watch a prize fight at the William Fox studio recently.

On Friday and Saturday of this week we shall offer another of our big bills. In addition to Frank Keenan, Thelma Sutter and Mrs. Vernon Castle, we are going to present a new star, Mary McLaughlin, in the Blue Bird production, "The Mysterious Mrs. M." Miss McLaughlin is one of the new stars and is rapidly forging to the front as one of the greatest stars the screen has ever produced.

The Rialto Theatre in New York City is one of the foremost theatres in the world. Every picture producer considers it a great compliment if one of his pictures can grace the program at that theatre. "The Mysterious Mrs. M." played to capacity audiences at last week at the Rialto. No further comment is necessary.

We have a good mid-week program to offer our patrons today and tomorrow.

Owen Moore and Marguerite Courtot, co-star in an elaborate production of Edgar Selwyn's "Rolling Stones."

This picture contains many thrills and is very funny to say the least. It is worth while to see it.

The William Fox production on the bill is "The Battle of Life," presenting Gladys Coburn.

The picture is true to life as it depicts the life of a young girl brought up in the midst of people who are thieves and shows her final triumph over these people.

A screening "Lonesome Luke" comedy concludes the bill.

REMEMBER THE SILVER TEA!

A full attendance and a liberal donation should reward the efforts of the benevolent ladies who are giving the Silver Tea at the Woman's Club house, Middle street, on Thursday, April 12, from 3 to 6 p. m., for the benefit of the Mark H. Wentworth Home, than which no more beneficent and necessary charity exists, in this or any other city, as it is the only refuge open to those for whom it is especially designed, chronic invalids, whom no hospital will receive, and no home for the aged. It is almost constantly full, with many on the waiting list, desirous of an opportunity to enter. A pleasant afternoon of music, refreshments and sociability is assured; let all who possibly can, come, enjoy and help.

There are a number of the members of the senior class of the high school who are to enlist in the naval reserve at this yard. The number of college students is increasing every day and there is now a good number under training on the Southery.

A plan for encouraging home gardens is to be made by a committee of ladies who meet this afternoon. It is not likely that the plans followed by the larger cities of laying aside certain public lands will be followed here, for in this city there are few people who have not a little garden of their own. A scheme of offering suitable prizes for boys and girls' home gardens is under consideration and is thought to be the most feasible.

At the regular quarterly roll call of Carpenters and Joiners' Local Union, No. 324, held last evening, April 10, 1917, on the call of the name of Robert Austin Noble, it was reported that he had enlisted in the navy on April 11th (same day that war was declared) as machinist's mate. Motion was made and unanimously carried that all dues and assessments be paid from the treasury of the union, and that he be kept in good standing during his term of service, and it be so recorded on the minutes. Young Noble is the son of the late Mark Noble, the well remembered letter carrier of this city.

ANOTHER WAR BRIDE

Salem Couple Marry Here;

Court Waives 5 Days' Notice.

The call to defend the Stars and Stripes and Dan Cupid, sent Sergeant Albert S. Meland of a Massachusetts cavalry regiment, and Miss Evelyn C. Tracy to this city on Tuesday for a marriage license which made Miss Tracy the second war bride in Portsmouth since the war began. However, the knot was not tied without a lot of work on the part of the prospective groom. After the license was issued, Meland wanted the five-day rule annulled in order that they could be married at once and the groom report for duty with his company. Judge Cupid of the police court who has the right under the law to allow a marriage under the five-day rule, was out of town and the couple was obliged to go to Dover where they found Judge Chamberlain of the superior court who granted the permit owing to the war situation. The couple, filled with joy, returned to this city and were later married. They are both residents of Salem, Mass.

FIRST WAR BRIDE TO BE MARRIED IN THIS CITY

of James Hall, a Navy Man.

Dan Cupid completed his final work with Portsmouth's first war bride on Tuesday when Miss Edith M. Chasin of this city became the wife of James Hall of Baltimore. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock and was of a very quiet nature. The groom is a member of Uncle Sam's sea fighting forces and is attached to the U. S. S. North Carolina as cook for the ship officers and is very popular with the ship's company. Following the expiration of the groom's enlistment they will make their home in Baltimore.

The bride formerly resided in Bangor and for some time has filled the position of cashier at the George W. Armstrong Dining Room and News Company, at the railroad station. She is a young woman of charming personality and a genuine favorite with each and every one of her many friends and associates.

Colonel John H. Bartlett of Portsmouth sizes up the New Hampshire General Court of 1917 correctly when he says: "This is one of the fairest and most independent Legislatures we ever had, and it is very patriotic."
